DESCRIPTION:

The front door leads to a small entrance hallway. To the front, the sitting room has timber effect flooring and a brick open fireplace.

To the rear, the generously sized kitchen/dining room has a range of solid wood-fronted units, double oven, gas hob, washing machine and door to the rear garden.

There is also a spacious ground floor shower room with shower and wash basin, and a separate WC housing the gas central heating boiler.

On the first floor, the principal bedroom is a spacious double room to the front with an extensive range of bedroom furniture and an en suite cloakroom (with WC and wash basin).

Bedroom 2, at the rear, is also a double, and bedroom 3 is a single room ideal for a home office.

The front garden is bounded by a low brick wall and has a lawn and a range of established shrubs. A gate leads to a covered passageway along the side of the house.

Beyond this is a detached brick outbuilding suitable for storage or workshop use. The tidily kept rear garden has a block paved patio, a lawn and planted borders. A gated rear access leads to a communal car park historically used by residents of the property.

LOCATION:

Colehill offers first and middle schools, a church, a library, local shops including a Co-Op/post office, and scenic walks in Cannon Hill Plantation. Bus services connect to the market town of Wimborne Minster (approximately 2 miles) with its busy shopping centre and wide range of amenities, and to the coastal town of Bournemouth which has a mainline rail link to London Waterloo.

COUNCIL TAX: Band B

DIRECTIONS:
